U.S. CRUISER ASHEVILLE IS TO SAIL TODAY FOR SWATOW

Warship Is Unexpectedly Ordered To Leave

NO REASON GIVEN

Crew Had Planned Ball At The Astor House

The American cruiser Asheville, which has been in port for two weeks, received unexpected orders yesterday to proceed immediately to Swatow, and accordingly all preparations were made last night to lift anchor at daybreak today.

The reason for the sudden and unexpected change of base was not announced last night and the officers and men of the vessel were as much in the dark as anybody else as to why it was found necessary to send the cruiser to southern waters.

Recent dispatches from Canton to the effect that General Chen, recently overthrown by Dr. Sun's forces, intended to strive desperately to retrieve his waning military fortunes may be connected, in some way, with the order sending the American cruiser away from Shanghai so suddenly. The fact that Dr. Sun is sailing south today also may have something to do with the order, but this, of course, is only a guess.

The order sending them to Swatow came as a great disappointment to the officers and men of the cruiser, particularly as they had made all arrangements with Manager Roger L. Moore, of the Astor House, for a ball in the grill room of the hotel. Committees had been named and all arrangements were complete to this function, an announcement of which was to have been made today.

Foreign Ministry New Peking Puzzle

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, January 26.—A Mandate issued last night appointed the Cabinet Ministers with permanent rank with the exception of Dr. Alfred Sze who left Peking for Tientsin yesterday. Dr. Sze has not yet recovered from influenza. He tendered his resignation when he was taken ill but this was not accepted but he was verbally granted leave. It is expected that his resignation will be accepted simultaneously with the appointment of his successor. There is much speculation in that connection.

It is reliably stated that Mr. Wang Yung-pao, the former Minister at Berne, will be offered the post but he desired a Parliamentary vote before taking up acting rank.

Mr. Liu En-yuan, the Minister of Finance, is taking up his post this afternoon and Mr. Yu-lin, the Minister of Communications, will take up his post tomorrow.

Russian Refugee Ship Wrecked Off Formosa, Report

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Manila, January 26.—It is reported that one of the refugee Russian ships was wrecked off Formosa but no confirmation has been received.

Governor-General Wood after visiting Mariveles said that he would ask the Washington Government to allocate a portion of the Russian relief fund voted by Congress to the refugees. General Wood has asked all the Chambers of Commerce to take up the question of relief. Meanwhile, the Russians will be received as refugees in transit.

NO QUORUM

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, January 26.—The Senate and the House of Representatives were both unable to form a quorum today.

It is reported that Mr. Wang Chia-hsiang is withdrawing his candidature to the Speakership of the Senate and that he will be offered a post outside of Parliament.

Smiles from the Mixed Court

BY J. L. BUTTS

It was a very annoying and lamentable affair throughout, said Ban Mau-tsung, not to mention the fact that it had placed his wife's life in jeopardy.

Ban was speaking in rebuttal to a story which Wong Sz, ricsha coolie, had just narrated to the Court. According to Wong, Ban had tried to engage the former's chariot for a very long ride and had offered a mere three coppers as fare. When he held out for six Ban had assaulted him with fists and feet, causing him to lose face and portions of his epidermis.

This was not so, Ban protested. The facts were that his wife was very ill and he was in a hurry to reach home and call her spirit back. It was only a little way to his dwelling but the urgency of the situation impelled him to seek rapid transportation and he shook Wong out of a snooze beside the curb and explained to him that he wished to be conveyed swiftly over this short distance. Wong had yawned a couple of times and remarked that the charge would be six coppers. Ban thought the other must have misunderstood, and again described the location of his domicile, at the same time offering half the amount demanded. At this Wong broke into a raucous laugh and said he guessed Ban had never ridden in a ricsha before and did not know much about city life and the tariffs in vogue. Ban, continuing, said he was mortified by these remarks and turned indignantly away to negotiate with some other ricsha yanker. Wong, he said, followed him and caught hold of his sleeve, pulling and shoving him about so that he collided with another person. This person became violently angry. Other persons witnessing the outrageous conduct of Wong became angry also, and there was a general mix-up—to the extreme sorrow of such a peace-loving soul as Ban.

"Seeing this," Ban concluded. "I endeavored to make peace, and I absolutely gave the complainant three coppers. Then two policemen came along and, after some consultation, we went to the police station."

Ban's eloquent defense collapsed when the two policemen lent the weight of their testimony to that of the ricsha puller and the Court assessed the damage to Wong's pride and skin at Mex. $10.

BELAY, THERE!

"He came aboard my boat while I was asleep and stole $4 worth of bedding and clothes," declared Skipper Sz Kwei-mien. "But I woke up in time to see him go over the side and chased him into an alleyway and turned him over to a constable."

"The foregoing is all rot," retorted Skipper Tsang Ah-woh, who occupied the prisoner's dock. "My stone barge was navigating up the Hongkew Creek when we sighted this lubber's wood barge, swung dead across the channel, and nary a soul on watch. When I finally succeeded in rousing the this blinkety-blink descendant of a left-hand marlinspike, he flatly refused to clear the fairway. What was I to do? The only thing I could think of was to go aboard his rotten old hulk and impound his other trousers and a bed quilt. I told him he could have 'em back when he got out of the way and let me proceed. I never intended to keep the things, and besides the pants wouldn't fit me. The reason I was in the alleyway when the policeman interfered was that I had a friend living in that neighborhood and I was looking for him in order to while away the time until the creek would be sailable again."

The Court, after a brief review of the Chinese navigation laws, took Tsang off the high seas for five days.

LAST NIGHT'S BROADCASTING HEARD OVER 500 MILES

Passengers On Liner Madison, Near Kobe, Entertained

AGAIN TONIGHT

Special Program For American University Club

Tonight's Radio Program

Tonight's broadcasting is specially arranged for the meeting of the American University Club at the Columbia Country Club, beginning at 8 o'clock. As usual a few phonograph selections will be played at that hour to enable sets to tune in at 200 meters.

8 p.m. News bulletins.

8:15 Mr. Mark Hanna, well known Shanghai fun-maker in a specialty song number.

8:30 Columbia Country Club orchestra, led by Harry Kerry.

8:45 American University Club Quartette.

9 p.m. Cheer leading by radio. The cheer leader will lead the collegian rooters at the Country Club from the roof of the Dollar building.

The complete program of the special sacred concert to be broadcasted Sunday evening—short sermon and sacred songs—will be announced in tomorrow's CHINA PRESS.

"Every day, in every way, it's getting better and better!"

With all due apologies to Dr. Emile Coue, the famous exponent of auto-suggestion whose teachings are now the rage in Europe and in the United States, that sentence describes the radio broadcasting from THE CHINA PRESS-Radio Corporation of China station on the roof of the Dollar building.

Last night's broadcasting program was a distinct success, in every way. The wireless operator on the Admiral-Oriental liner President Madison, which sailed from Shanghai at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon and docks in Kobe at 9 o'clock this morning, wirelessed the French wireless station last night that they had enjoyed the program immensely. As the President Madison was 500 miles from Shanghai at the time the program was broadcasted last night the future possibilities of radio in China, as well as the present wonders, is easily comprehended.

The French wireless station and a number of amateurs with private sets also notified THE CHINA PRESS and the Radio Corporation of China that they had heard every number on last night's program clearly and distinctly.

One of the most gratifying reports came from Mr. T. Y. Quak of Soochow who reported that he heard last night's program on a detector-tube set very plainly. Mr. Quak has heard every program that has been broadcasted from THE CHINA PRESS station and his success is an idea of what an enormous scope the radio has in China. Mr. Osborn of the Radio Corporation said last night that he was confident it would be only a few weeks, or months at

January 10th.

China Press Radio Heard In Tientsin

The China Press Radio Concert was heard, as far as could be ascertained late last night, by only one of the larger sets in Tientsin. Mr. Myron Simon heard harmonics only from about 8.15 to 9.15, when he heard the Dance music quite clearly. Had it been possible to tune down to the 200 meter wave length he would have heard the entire concert. Mr. Simon, who was assisted by Mr. Montcalm, was unable to get his set down to lower than about 260 meters.

DR. REINSCH IS DEAD AFTER LONG ILLNESS, RITES MONDAY

Former U. S. Minister To Peking Passes Away

SERVICES HERE

Was Noted Professor Of Political Science

After being confined in the Victoria Nursing Home and in Dr. Fearn's Hospital since last fall with a lingering illness that has gradually grown worse Dr. Paul S. Reinsch, former American Minister to Peking, an advisor to the Chinese Government, and one of the best known political scientists in the United States, died at Dr. Fearn's Hospital yesterday morning.

All hope for Dr. Reinsch's recovery was given up four days ago after two physicians from the Rockefeller Foundation in Peking, who had been called to Shanghai by wire to perform an operation on the noted diplomat, after a conference with Dr. Thomas B. Dunn, decided that an operation would be inadvisable. Dr. Reinsch's condition was so bad that it was feared the operation would cause his immediate death.

The State Department at Washington was notified of his death by United States Consul-General Edwin S. Cunningham yesterday.

Consul-General Cunningham also communicated by cable with Dr. Reinsch's family at Washington and further arrangements will be made here as soon as a reply is received.

A memorial or funeral service will be held here at the Union Church, probably on Monday, but completed details are not possible until word has been received from the former Minister's relatives in America. A definite announcement in this connection will be made today or tomorrow.

Dr. Reinsch's home is at Madison, Wisconsin, but his family, since he returned to America after leaving the Peking post, has been living in Washington. He is survived by his widow and three children, the eldest a daughter about 16 years of age.

EVENTFUL LIFE

Paul Samuel Reinsch was born in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, June 10, 1870. He was a graduate of the University of Wisconsin in the class of 1892 and later studied at the University of Berlin, at Rome and at Paris. He became assistant professor of Political Science at the University of Wisconsin in 1899 and two years later was made professor of the department, holding the chair until 1913, when he was appointed Minister to China.

Dr. Reinsch held the Ministership until 1919, when he returned to Washington, D. C., to practise law. While there he was made a counsellor of the Chinese Government and served in that capacity during the Disarmament Conference.

Dr. Reinsch had served the

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY MAKES RECORDS IN 1922

Sold 19,356 Last Year; Total Volumes Circulated Is 1,987,326

The American Bible Society's China Agency sold more Bibles in 1922 than in any previous year. The circulation figure for Bibles, according to the annual report just issued from Shanghai, was 19,356. This is more than above the former high water mark.

The income from sale of Scriptures exceeds by nearly $400 (Mex.) the largest amount received in any previous year. The Chinese paid Mex. $37,995.32 for the publications of the Society during the past year.

That the so-called Anti-Christian Movement has increased student interest in the Scriptures is attested by the fact that in 1922 a half dozen commercial bookstores in Peking alone sold over 2,000 Bibles and New Testaments, to the value of $1,200 (Mex.). These went almost entirely to non-Christian students in the government schools.

The total number of volumes circulated during 1922 was 1,987,326. These were in sixteen languages and dialects of China, and eight foreign tongues.

The Society published over 2,000,000 volumes, of which 50,000 were printed in Chengtu by the Canadian Methodist Mission Press. Another thousand was printed in Foochow. The bulk of the printing is done in Yokohama and Shanghai.

The colporteurs of the Society have sold books in the army camps of Feng Yu-hsiang and other generals, in the heart of the great Pinghsiang Coal Mines, on college campuses, in official yamens, in temple courts, at country fairs, among the tribesmen on the Tibetan border, and on the most crowded streets of the ancient walled cities of China.

DISABLED VESSEL MAKING FOR PORT, WIRELESS REPORT

Sailing Ship With Disabled Rudder Sighted By Cleveland

Captain W. I. Eisler, representative here of the United States Shipping Board, received a wireless message yesterday from the steamer President Cleveland to the effect that the ship had sighted a three-masted, square-rigged sailing vessel flying distress signals and standing in for the mouth of the Yangtsze.

The sailing vessel, the name of which was not given, was asking assistance, signalling that her rudder was disabled. The tug Sampson has gone to her assistance. The crippled vessel, when seen by the Cleveland, was about 500 miles out from Shanghai.

GERMANY TO RESIST BY ALL MEANS, SAYS FINANCE HEAD

Firmly Resolved To Frustrate The French, He Says

TRILLION DEFICIT

Return Of Industrialists Riotously Hailed

(Reuter's Service)

Berlin, Jan. 25.—The Government is firmly resolved to resort to every available means to frustrate the French policy of violence, declared the Minister of Finance, Dr. Hermes, in a speech in the Reichstag today. It would be an unparalleled disgrace if the Germans allowed themselves to be forced by military orders to help French tyranny to export payments or deliveries in kind from the occupied area. The Reparations and Rhineland Commissions had become the mere tools of France.

Introducing the Budget for 1923, Dr. Hermes stated that the deficit was between 1,400,000,000,000 and 1,600,000,000,000 marks.

(Reuter's Service)

London, Jan. 26.—The return of the industrialists who were court-martialled to the Rhineland was marked by most enthusiastic demonstrations at the stations en route, including Cologne where 50,000 assembled and swarmed over the rails.

Demonstrations at Essen were stupendous. A French officer was mishandled and was rescued by the police.

(Reuter's Service)

Duesseldorf, Jan. 26.—A large demonstration here culminated in intervention, French infantry firing into the air and cavalry using their swords.

(Reuter's Service)

Berlin, Jan. 26.—It is reported that the Government has notified the Allies that German officers and officials will henceforth be forbidden to accompany inter-Allied military and other missions if they include Frenchmen and Belgians.

(Reuter's Service)

London, Jan. 25.—Messages from Mayence, received via Paris and Berlin, describing the disorders at Mayence at the conclusion of the trial, state that a crowd of 4,000 demonstrators overturned a tramcar, burned French newspapers and molested civilians and soldiers.

Several persons were injured and there were several arrests.

DR. SUN LEAVES TODAY; TO SEEK READJUSTMENT

Will Not Try to Re-establish Former Government

Dr. Sun Yat-sen, who leaves today on the steamer Taiyo Maru for Canton, made it clear yesterday that he is not going to Canton with the purpose of re-establishing a government like that he formerly headed, but to readjust the situation created there in the recent military conflict in which his arms were victorious.

While in the south, it was stated yesterday, Doctor Sun will endeavor as quickly as may be to restore order and harmony among the various leaders there and while carrying forward his general plans to bring about disbandment of troops he is to negotiate with the Hongkong government with the end of placing relations between Canton and the Colony on a basis of firm friendliness.

Canton, Jan. 25.—Mr. Hu Han-ming was inaugurated Governor of Kwangtung today. Labor parties paraded in honor of the occasion.

General Li Fuh-lin arrived today from Fukien amid rejoicing on the part of residents of Honam, where General Li was formerly stationed.

General Shen Hung-ying's Kwangsi army is supporting Mr. Lin Cheng-hsun in the matter of his resuming the Speakership of the Kwangtung Provincial Assembly. It is also helping Mr. Wen Liang-yi to regain the managing directorship of the Kwangtung-Yuehhan Railroad.

Both Mr. Lin and Mr. Wen are members of the Cheng-Hsueh-hui and receiving backing from General Tseng Chun-hsun. So far the Cheng-Hsueh-hui are gaining control of the North River districts.

In the course of the interview, the Premier is said to have stated that affairs in the South should be administered by Dr. Sun Yat-sen, and that he was willing to adopt any views entertained by Dr. Sun.

Sanford Named To Be Supreme Court Justice

Exclusive Dispatch To THE CHINA PRESS

Washington, Jan. 26.—Mr. Edward S. Sanford, United States District Attorney for Tennessee and a former judge, has been nominated by President Harding to fill the vacancy on the United States Supreme Court caused by the resignation of Associate Justice Pitney.

Rockefellers Not Interested In Indiana Oil Co.

Exclusive Dispatch To THE CHINA PRESS

Washington, Jan. 26.—The United States Senate committee investigating oil was informed today that neither John D. Rockefeller, Sr. or John D. Rockefeller, Jr., owned any stock in the Standard Oil Company of Indiana.

Dr. Sun Yat-sen and Mr. A. A. Joffe, Russian Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to China, have authorised the publication of the following statement:

During his stay in Shanghai, Mr. Joffe has had several conversations with Dr. Sun Yat-sen, which have revealed the identity of their views on matters relating to Chinese-Russian relations, more especially on the following points:

(1).—Dr. Sun Yat-sen holds that the Communistic order or even the Soviet system cannot actually be introduced into China, because there do not exist here the conditions for the successful establishment of either Communism or Sovietism. This view is entirely shared by Mr. Joffe, who is further of opinion that China's paramount and most pressing problem is to achieve national unification and attain full national independence; and regarding this great task, he has assured Dr. Sun Yat-sen that China has the warmest sympathy of the Russian people and can count on the support of Russia.

SOVIET'S ATTITUDE

(2).—In order to clarify the situation, Dr. Sun Yat-sen has requested Mr. Joffe for a reaffirmation of the principles defined in the Russian Note to the Chinese Government, dated September 27, 1920. Mr. Joffe has accordingly re-affirmed those principles and categorically declared to Dr. Sun Yat-sen that the Russian Government is ready and willing to enter into negotiations with China on the basis of the renunciation by Russia of all the treaties and exactions which the Tsardom imposed on China, including the treaty or treaties and agreements relating to the Chinese Eastern Railway (the management of which being the subject of a specific reference in article VII of the said Note).

(3).—Recognising that the Chinese Eastern Railway Question in its entirety can be satisfactorily settled only at a competent Russo-Chinese Conference, Dr. Sun Yat-sen is of opinion that the realities of the situation point to the desirability of a modus vivendi in the matter of the present management of the Railway. And he agrees with Mr. Joffe that the existing Railway management should be temporarily re-organised by agreement between the Chinese and the Russian Governments without prejudice, however, to the true rights and special interests of either party. At the same time Dr. Sun Yat-sen considers that General Chang Tso-lin should be consulted on the point.

NOT IMPERIALISTIC

(4).—Mr. Joffe has categorically declared to Dr. Sun Yat-sen (who has fully satisfied himself as to this) that it is not and never has been the intention or purpose of the present Russian Government to pursue an Imperialistic policy in Outer Mongolia or to cause it to secede from China. Dr. Sun Yat-sen, therefore, does not view an immediate evacuation of Russian troops from Outer Mongolia as either imperative or in the real interest of China, the more so on account of the inability of the present Government at Peking to prevent such an evacuation being followed by a recrudescence of intrigues and hostile activities by White Guardists against Russia and the creation of a graver situation than that which now exists.

Mr. Joffe has parted from Dr. Sun Yat-sen on the most cordial and friendly terms. On leaving Japan, to which he is now proceeding, he will again visit the South of China before finally returning to Peking.

FEAR SUSPECTS IN MURDER CASE MAY KILL SELVES

Apprehension that three suspects may commit suicide while in custody led the police to ask for an early trial at the Mixed Court yesterday of three Chinese arrested in connection with the murder of a man found wrapped up in a blanket and covered with stab wounds in the house of a Japanese on Tiendong Road Tuesday.

The arrested parties are two men and a woman, the latter the wife of the murdered man. One of the other two prisoners is believed to have attempted to commit suicide in a cell at Hongkew police station yesterday morning. He is declared by the police to be the sweetheart of the woman, who was employed as an amah in the Japanese house, and is a ricsha coolie. When arrested, following information from the woman, his hands were bandaged and he was found to be suffering from a number of wounds. Yesterday morning the bandages were found torn from his hands and the police believe that he sought in this manner to end his life. The other man was arrested at an address in the Chinese City, the woman pointing him out to the police. She also gave information which led to the arrest of a Japanese, who will be tried in the Japanese Court.

After Detective Sub-Inspector Gabbutt had outlined the case to Assessor Mead and Magistrate Tsank at the Mixed Court yesterday and asked a remand for the case to be heard by Mr. Mead and Magistrate Loh, who sat at the inquest, the Court ordered that the matter be set down for a special hearing at as early a date as possible.

Commercial Treaty Of U.S. And Japan Will Be Continued

(Eastern News Agency)

Tokio, January 26.—At today's sitting of the House of Representatives, replying to a question by Mr. E. Uyehara, Count Uchida, Minister of Foreign Affairs, stated in effect:

"It has been provided that the Commercial Treaty concluded between Japan and the United States will be continued, unless both parties concerned announce their intention to terminate it one year previous to the expiration of its term. In that, however, the Governments of both countries have not gone through proper formalities for the termination of the said Treaty, it will as a matter of course be continued for another ten years.

"With regard to the question relating to the naturalisation of the Japanese in the United States, Mr. Hanihara, newly appointed Japanese Ambassador to the United States, who is leaving here for his post tomorrow, is expected to do his best for the solution of the Shidehara-Morris Agreement."

Burial Society Does Good Work

The Pu-Shan-San-Chong, a benevolent institution with headquarters in Chapei, has, since its establishment, been steadily extending the work of burying dead bodies and exposed coffins. To facilitate such work in the Chinese territory and in the Settlement, motor-cars are now used in addition to coolie labor.

More than 10,000 bodies and exposed coffins are buried by the organisation every year. Recently it has extended its operations to Ferry Road, Robison Road, Kiaochow Road, etc., and has removed some 400 corpses and coffins therefrom for burial in its own cemetery.

This institution has been doing this kind of work for the sake of public health. Not only the people of Chapei but also those living in the International Settlement and French Concession are benefited by its operations. The work it is doing deserves to be widely known and properly supported.

"Tom Jones"

"Tom Jones" delighted another large house last night at the Lyceum Theater. The production went off with a snap and zest so often missing in amateur efforts and both the principals and chorus were all that could be desired. The scenery, setting and costumes were really remarkable.

Mrs. Isenman, Mr. Raggett, Mrs. Chris Wingrove and Mr. Maitland were given hearty applause for their success while Mr. Donne also came in for a large share of favor from the house.

"Tom Jones" is one of the most ambitious and successful of Amateur Dramatic Club productions and reflects great credit on the producers and those in the cast.

Another performance will be given tonight when a crowded house will greet the local amateurs.

United States Government in official capacities before he was assigned to the Legation at Peking. In 1906 he was the American delegate to the third Pan-American Conference at Rio de Janeiro, later attended the fourth conference, and was also delegate to several other South and Central American conferences.

As an author Dr. Reinsch has to his credit a number of able works dealing with legislative, diplomatic and administrative subjects. Perhaps the best known volumes—to the Far Easterner—are his "Intellectual Currents in the Far East" and his two latest volumes, "An American Diplomat in China" and "Secret Diplomacy," both published last year.

One of his earlier works, "The Common Law in the Early American Colonies," received a great deal of favorable criticism and is regarded as a reference book of authority and value. He has written several books on colonial government and administration and on legislative methods. He has been a contributor to a number of historical and economic journals.

CHINESE LEAGUE GAMES TONIGHT; SAINTS EYE TITLE

Financial Coueism

These days much attention is being paid to Coue and his teachings. Whether or not one agrees with all the doctrine, the central principle that the imagination is more potent than the will in producing action is significant for every saver.

Instead of determining, "I will save, I will save", picture the results to be accomplished by saving—a home of your own, a motor car, financial independence travel—and pretty soon you will find that you are putting away a portion of your income toward the realisation of your idea.

Then you can repeat from a financial standpoint the Coue formula of

"Day by day,
In every way,
I am getting better and better."

G.$9,300,000,000 Life Insurance During 1922

MORE than nine thousand millions of dollars of life insurance was taken out by the American people during 1922. These figures are an increase over 1921 of almost 7 per cent and bring the total life insurance of "legal reserve" companies in the United States well beyond fifty billion gold dollars. This year will probably see an even larger increase.

THESE are stupendous amounts. They form one of the chief explanations of the great advances in education and of the high degree of individual and national prosperity in America. The fact that 85% of all estates in that country are from life insurance speaks for itself.

WILL you leave an estate sufficient to care for your family as long as they live?

Mr. Slevin was arrested in nkow by a detachment of rines from the U. S. S. Isabel, miral Anderson's flagship on Yangtsze, charged with im- ting six airplanes into China. airplanes, it is alleged, were be used for military purposes. One witness—Mr. Chang Chu- —was heard yesterday after- on. Judge Lobingier adjourned urt just before 8 o'clock last ht and the case will be continu- on Monday afternoon. Mr. ang, who is the manager of the ochow Motor Car Company, ich operates a fleet of motor rs between Foochow and Nantai, tified that he had met Mr. vin with Mr. Lim King-jin, the illionaire Amoy merchant, and d purchased the airplanes from r. Slevin last June.

The airplanes were purchased, said, to be used in carrying assengers and mails from Foo- w to Amoy and were not to be ed for military purposes. Mr. ang in answer to questions said at he was not acquainted with ther General Wu Pei-fu or Gen- al Chang Tso-lin.

Captain Gallup, who served in rance with the American flying rces during the war, was en- aged to give friendly advice, but efore actual flying could be arted civil war broke out in Foo- ow, and Mr. Chang said that as was a native of Tientsin he left.

Before he left, he said, he tained the promise of Mr. Ling ing-ren that he would look after e six planes and send them to me other part of China to revent their falling into the nds of the militarists of any ction.

The planes were purchased for 43,000, he said, and the money as deposited in the Hongkong Shanghai Bank. It was still here on deposit, he said, and as r as he knew no one had ever ade an effort to get it back from e bank.

Cross examined by Major C. P. olcomb, Mr. Chang said that it as at first intended to use the lanes for flying from Foochow to he Pagoda Anchorage.

Mr. Chang also said that the 43,000 for the purchase of the irplanes by the motor car com- any had been raised by assessing he shareholders. Major Holcomb sserted that the witness had pre- iously stated that the money had een borrowed from native banks nd asked for an explanation. Mr. hang replied that it had been ecessary to borrow the money to urchase the 'planes until all the hareholders had paid their hare.

"In other words you get it rice?" Major Holcomb asked.

Mr. F. J. Schuhl, who appears r. Mr. Slevin, objected to Major olcomb's pointed remark.

Mr. Schuhl then stated that aptain Gallup was leaving for he United States on the President ierce on February 3 and asked or an early hearing of the re- ainder of the case. Judge obingier announced that he ould hear further testimony on Monday afternoon.

Mr. Schuhl then said that he ished to introduce several pieces of correspondence into the evid- nce and requested the Court's o-operation in securing copies of telegram which he said had been sent to the American Minis- r in Peking by the Secretary of State, Mr. Hughes, in which it was stated that the Curtis air- lane manufacturers had permis- ion to send the six 'planes to China. He also said he would in- roduce data showing that the American Consul at Foochow had investigated the Foochow Motor Car Company and had found it to be a reputable business concern in every way.

the outside, until every missionary station in this district would be equipped with radio.

LAST NIGHT'S PROGRAM

Three feature musical numbers were broadcasted from the Dollar building last night. Mr. George Warn, fluegelhornist and jazz cornet artist, jazzed the ether waves to perfection. Listeners said that the music was just as clear as when Mr. Warn performs on his instruments at St. George's Cafe where he is now featured nightly.

Miss Adaline Hoffman, who has just arrived in Shanghai from Honolulu where she was on the radio broadcasting program that brought the radio to Hawaii, sang 'O Sole Mio.' Miss Hoffman has a very pleasing voice and the song was transmitted well to hundreds of eager listeners. She was slightly indisposed with a cold last night, but has promised to appear on the radio program again in the near future and sing some of the Hawaiian melodies for which she is famous.

Mr. Frank Blackinger of St. George's Cafe on Bubbling Well Road, played two excellent piano solos—"Kitten On The Keys," and "Those Lonesome Mama Blues." Mr. Blackinger was formerly pianist with the Manila Hotel orchestra and the Manila Army and Navy Club orchestra and is a wizard at pounding the ivories in jazz music. He will also appear on the program again at an early date.

TONIGHT'S PROGRAM

The program for tonight, to be broadcasted beginning at 8 o'clock, has been arranged as a feature for the annual meeting of the American University Club at the Columbia Country Club.

While the college men and women from educational institutions all over the United States gather in their reunion at the Country Club and exchange wigwags on college days the Columbia Country Club orchestra, led by Harry Kerry, whose music is already extremely popular in Shanghai, will play a number of selections. The music, played in the specially equipped broadcasting station on top the Dollar building, will be instantaneously transmitted through the air to the Country Club's amplifiers.

In addition to the orchestra music Mr. Mark Hanna, whose fun-making antics and songs have caused numerous laughs at the Shriner's Minstrels and other attractions in Shanghai, will sing a specialty number, and the American University Club Quartette, four warblers of old time college songs, will sing a number of favorites. The collegians will have heard the songs before—but not when the singers have been several miles away.

RADIO YELLS

Another novelty for tonight's program will be the cheer leading led by an invisible cheer leader. College yells in American universities are a well known, if not important, part of the curriculum, and when the cheer leader on the Dollar building roof gives some of the famous skyrockets, hoots, booms and other famous yodels the rooters gathered at the Country Club will follow in the best approved fashion.

The North China Star, published at Tientsin, carried a story on the day following the first radio concert ever broadcasted in China, telling the people of the Northern city that radio receiving sets there had heard the music and news bulletins sent from the Dollar building. Mr. Myron Simon, who wired THE CHINA PRESS, asking the time of the airy concerts, had especially good fortune.

HEAR AT TIENTSIN

THE CHINA PRESS yesterday received a telegram from Dr. Charles J. Fox, editor of The North China Star, reporting that one set and several bulbs had heard the concert on Thursday night. As soon as a few minor difficulties have been overcome it is expected that Tientsin, Hongkong, Peking, and even Manila and Japan cities as well as Soochow, Ningpo and other nearby cities in China will hear every bit of each night's program clearly and distinctly.

Mr. E. G. Osborn of the Radio Corporation of China said last night that it was only fair to take into consideration that this was the first time radio had been attempted in China and that certain ever-present obstacles had to be overcome here the same as they were in the United States, where there are now millions of sets in operation every day and every night.

"Science will triumph over nature in the long run, however," Mr. Osborn said. "It will only be a short time now until everything will be in perfect working order. As Dr. Coue says, "Every day, in every way, it is getting better and better."

DR. SUN YAT-SEN CONGRATULATES CHINA PRESS RADIO

Southern Leader Delighted With Innovation—Predicts Great Educational Value

Dr. Sun Yat-sen, on the eve of his departure for Canton to resume the active leadership of the Constitutionalist cause, yesterday congratulated THE CHINA PRESS and the Radio Corporation of China on the introduction of the radio to China and expressed his utmost confidence that it would prove a success in every way and would greatly assist in spreading the light in China.

"I was especially gratified that my manifesto, which was made public in THE CHINA PRESS this morning, should have been broadcasted from THE CHINA PRESS station on top of the Dollar building," Dr. Sun said.

"It was my earnest hope that every one in China should read or hear my manifesto and the fact that it was broadcasted and heard by hundreds of people with receiving sets—some of them as far away as Tientsin and Hongkong—is a delightful surprise and a great pleasure. We who are working for the reunification of this great country of ours welcome such forward steps as the radio. It will not only closely link China orally with the rest of the world, but it will greatly assist in knitting the various cities and provinces of the country much more closely together."

Dr. Sun's manifesto, together with the information that he was leaving for Canton on Saturday—news that a large portion of China has been awaiting to hear—was broadcasted from The CHINA PRESS-Radio Corporation of China broadcasting station on Thursday night with other news bulletins from China and other parts of the world. News is broadcasted every night.

Rescind Judgment In Moneylending Case

At the British Supreme Court yesterday, before Assistant Judge Peter Grain, the case brought by Ganda Singh against Asa Singh was reheard. This was an echo of a moneylending transaction, in which a number of Sikh police officers appeared as witnesses, the defendant being an Indian ex-constable. Mr. R. C. Faithful appeared for the plaintiff.

Defendant said he had been summoned in connection with a claim for $1,368.50, and he did not appear in Court at the former hearing, as he thought it had been settled by Indian officers. He held a receipt from Ganda Singh. The latter was a constable but had been dismissed from the force. They had been doing some money lending business together, and when accounts were made up it was found that $54 was due to the plaintiff. This was paid with $9 court fees. There were an Indian Inspector, Sergeant interpreter and a priest present at the settlement.

Examined by Mr. Faithful, defendant said the partnership was started six months ago. Asked as to what capital they had witness said he did not know. Mr. Faithful contended that there must have been some capital as they could not start a moneylending business without money.

The Judge smilingly remarked that that was just what they did do. They borrowed money in order to lend it. Mr. Faithful asked witness if moneylending was allowed by members of the police force. Defendant replied that this was not allowed in the force. "Why did you it?"

"I did not do it. The plaintiff did it."

Defendant added that they had been two good friends before, but the plaintiff had insulted him, and they fought. He was a family man. Plaintiff came to his house without his knowledge and attempted to attack his wife. They were arrested and taken to Wayside police station, and later on Ganda Singh was dismissed from the force by Capt. Barrett. He had paid as his share of the capital about $50, and now had settled for $54. There was neither loss nor profit in the moneylending business.

After further testimony the former judgment was rescinded and Asa Singh was informed that he owed no money to the plaintiff. The large number of Indians in Court were obviously pleased with the result.

NEAR EAST PACT TO BE PRESENTED TO TURKS FEB. 1

All Delegations To Quit Lausanne This Week End

(Reuter's Service)

Lausanne, Jan. 25.—It has now been arranged that the Treaty will be presented to Turkey at the plenary sitting of the Conference on February 1.

All the delegations will leave Lausanne at the end of the week but a representative of each delegation will remain in case the Turks require explanations. If the Turks decide to sign the Treaty, the heads of the delegations will return to Lausanne for signature.

It is anticipated that the letter will be sent to the League of Nations today with regard to Mosul and presumably the question will be brought before the Council of the League next week. It is not improbable that the Council will send a commission of investigation to Mosul.

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Jan. 25.—Marquess Curzon has addressed a letter to the President of the League of Nations calling his attention at the next Council of the League of Nations to the divergences of view at Lausanne concerning the frontier between the Turks in Asia Minor and the territories placed under mandate and asking that the question should be placed on the agenda of the Council's meeting on Monday.

'KID' ROBERTS, THE PUGILIST MARVEL, TO EXHIBIT HERE

Hero Of Witwer's "The Leather Pushers" Now On Screen

"Kid" Roberts, the world's greatest pugilist, the bird that knocked them all for a row of pagodas, from the first pork and beaner he ever tackled up to and including the great Jack Dempsey himself, is coming to Shanghai.

What's that, you never heard of "Kid" Roberts!

If you never heard of "Kid" Roberts you must be one of the few who never read "The Leather Pushers," H. C. Witwer's great book on box fighting.

Maskee if you haven't read the book. The unbeatable "Kid" is coming to Shanghai in the pictures, and if you want to see the greatest fighter in the world in action—the Frank Merriwell of the squared circle—don't fail to see "The Leather Pushers."

Lew Tendler, himself a knuckle artist of no mean proportions, saw "Kid" Roberts in action on a Philadelphia moving picture and was so enthused about him that he wrote a piece for the Philadelphia Inquirer about it. Here it is:

"Kid" Roberts looks like a fellow that knows how to handle himself. I have seen a lot of fights, and all were not fought, in the ring, but this Roberts I saw at the Aldine Theater, in "The Leather Pushers," certainly packs a mean punch.

It was the best boxing bout I ever saw in the movies. It had the action of real life.

I notice in his corner poor old Sam McVey, one of the foxiest old birds that ever wore a glove. Sam also showed that he is a great actor. He was working as hard as this Roberts whom he seconded, and I guess old Sam had much to do with Roberts' work.

I learned that "Kid" Roberts is Reginald Denny, the noted actor. He is a handsome fellow, but he showed that he didn't care much for his face. He stopped a lot of punches with his map that I would hesitate to take.

"Kid" Roberts is what we class an aggressive boy. His defence is his attack. He doesn't know much about blocking punches, but he proved that he could hit. What made a hit with me was the fact that it was his left that put over the knockout.

Old Sam McVey always was yelling at him to "use your left," but the "Kid" just kept swinging away with the right. However, when the right time came Roberts brought one up from the floor and it was curtains for his man. Roberts can wallop. His failure to use his left earlier was explained after the fight. It developed that the "Kid" had injured his best hand in the gymnasium, but refused to tell anyone about it. He wouldn't call off the bout because he was champion. He showed that he was fearless.

You could not class Roberts as a boxing marvel, but for a guy who can put action into a bout and one who tears in without care of the opponent's punches, then you must hand it to the "Kid." He showed his gameness when he was dropped five times in one round, but he had stuff that makes champions and just wouldn't stay knocked out.

I want to say that I'm going to see Roberts in the rest of his pictures.

REMINGTON TYPEWRITER PROGRESS
Forty-eighth Year of the Organization's Business Life is Made Memorable by Announcement of the Improved Self Starting Remington for Office Use, and the New Remington Portable.

Within the last few months the Remington Typewriter Company has made two noteworthy contributions to typewriter progress.

First, is the improved Self Starting Remington, the sum of 48 years of experience in the manufacture of writing machines. Second, is the wonderful Remington Portable which fits in a case only 4 inches high and is especially designed for the traveling man, field engineer, author, minister, school boy and girl and in fact anyone who has casual writing to do.

The checks against every kind of mis-operation are so complete that the machine seems bound to turn out good work no matter how operated. The improved Self Starting Remington is a machine for the expert but not the expert alone. It is certain to have exceptional popularity with the student, beginner and the novice, because it helps them to turn out good, acceptable work from the very outset.

The fact that the Remington Portable Typewriter has the standard keyboard has already insured its exceptional popularity. It has the same number of printing keys, same size, same arrangement, as any standard machine. This means that from the operator's standpoint it is exactly like the standard machine. The user of a standard machine has nothing new to learn and the user of a Remington Portable has nothing to unlearn.

SCOTLAND PICKED TO WIN TODAY

International Match Should Go Against Portuguese

OTHER GAMES

Four Matches Carded In Second League This Afternoon

BY "WHISTLE"

Interest in soccer will not be at fever heat today, now that the big game of last Saturday has settled the leaders of the First Division.

There are no matches in this division carded but the junior competition is carrying on.

There should be some good football in the first international however and these games are always worth watching for several reasons, one of the chief being that the game is generally a clean one throughout and it is not very often that this can be said of First League clashes. The partisan club spirit is absent, and as this applies to the spectators the game is allowed to run its course and the referee is treated as if it were within the bounds of possibility that he was really trying to hold the balance impartially. How he must enjoy it?

Scotland's team should be a useful crowd, though with the present British passport regulations there may be a difficulty about one or two players, however. They should get safely home. Portugal is calling on seven St. Xavier's players, strengthened by the Interport goalkeeper A. H. Remedios, with N. Collaco, H. Collaco and A. Remedios of the Club Lusitano—a good team but the defence looks hardly strong enough to hold the Scot forwards.

The following is the official program for today:

PORTUGAL vs. SCOTLAND

To be played on Police ground at 3 p.m. Referee: Mr. R. G. Herbert. Linesmen: Messrs. W. T. Bissett and A. Gutierrez.

The following will be the teams:

Scotland (Engineers' Colors)—A. McLean, D. Campbell, T. W. R. Wilson (Captain), C. Macdonald, G. T. Crawford, M. D. Marshall, W. E. Dailey, A. S. Phillips, J. Falconer, J. K. Ewing, A. H. Leslie. Reserves: M. Tonkin, H. Wallace and A. Knox.

Portugal (Club Lusitano Colors)—A. H. dos Remedios, C. J. Encarnacao (Captain), W. Favacho, N. Collaco, H. Favacho, A. dos Remedios, F. Guterriez, C. Silva, H. Collaco, J. Silva and J. Gutierrez.

SECOND LEAGUE

T. H. School vs. Customs. S.F.C. ground. Referee: Mr. T. L. Rawsthorne.

Public School 2nd vs. Police 2nd. Hongkew. Referee: Mr. R. Wegener.

St. Xavier's 2nd vs. S.F.C. 2nd. Widow's Monument. Referee: Mr. C. W. Cooper.

S.R.C. 2nd vs. Rangers. S.R.C. ground. Referee: Mr. W. Shepard-Graham.

Owing to the fact that a number of Club Lusitano players will be engaged in the International match, the Second League match between the Club Lusitano and H. M. Navy has, with permission of the Association, been postponed.

The following line-ups are announced:

The Thos. Hanbury School will lineup as follows: H. Toledo; J. Corbin, T. Sofoulis; H. Harvey, E. Waller, B. Schwartz; P. Brown, T. Way, H. Park, A. Mischuhin, T. Symons. Reserves: H. G. Huckstep, S. Moalem, J. Wilson.

The following have been selected to represent the St. Xavier's second eleven: J. Lanza, T. J. Allan, C. E. Passos, R. A. Favacho, J. Neodt, A. Souza, A. Abolitiz, T. W. Murray, (Capt.), C. Silva, A. S. J. da Costa, and O. Boisserie. Reserve: F. A. Marcal.

HARRIERS OUT TODAY

Two squads of Shanghai Harriers Club men will go on a three-and-a-half mile training jaunt this afternoon. The squads will start from the American School at 3 o'clock.

Boxing And Wrestling Show To Aid Russian Refugees

Tuesday and Wednesday, February 6 and 7, have been fixed for the boxing and wrestling show to be held at the Town Hall in aid of Russian refugees here. Mr. G. H. Parkes of the Public School, secretary of the Boxing Club, will be in charge of the affair.

One of the attractions will be Mariynoff, the Russian Hercules, who claims he is the champion wrestler and heavy weight lifter of the world. He stands well over six feet with a chest measurement of 56 inches, and weighs over 280 pounds.

Mariynoff is only one of a half a dozen giants in the wrestling world at present in Shanghai. One of their number is in possession of a medal presented to him by the late Czar for his great abilities as an all round athlete.

The plans are to be in the hands of Messrs. Moutrie's by Monday, and the public would be well advised to book as early as possible and every person will be conscious when booking his or her seat that they will not only receive a good evening's entertainment for their money, but will be assisting a most deserving cause, a cause that has been agitating the public of Shanghai for a considerable time.

The net proceeds will be handed over to the president of the Russian Co-operative Society, to help alleviate the terrible distress among the workless refugees, and any help by way of lessening the expenses will be greatly appreciated by the Society.

Mr. Parkes, Tel. N. 197 will be glad to hear from persons desirous of assisting by way of lessening the cost of advertising space, or the presentation of a trophy or two.

The Russian Cadets, who have a band—and some of them are accomplished musicians—will play various selections during the evening.

Blues Two Games In Lead, Defeat The Stripes, 32-18; Whites Have Quit League

BY TOMMY GRAFTON

Carl Neprud's Blues strengthened their hold on first place in the Foreign League last night by defeating the Stripes in a fast game on the Rowing Club floor. The score was 32 to 18.

The Stripes pressed hard in the opening minutes of play, and kept the leaders busy for a time, Ross scoring several shots, and the score was well advanced when the Blues got going, after Lolly Goldman went in at forward. The Stripes were noticeably weak in passing, trying too many long ones, few of which were completed. Krisel was especially weak, tossing the ball out often. The half-time score was 12 to 6, with the Blues leading.

Fast playing by Neprud and Goldman gave the leaders many scores in the latter period, "Lolly" breaking through for four baskets. Ross and Johnson played well for the losers, scoring three apiece, but the team lacked team-work, and many good opportunities were lost.

The win places the Blues two full games ahead of the Bearcats and the American School, whom they will go against next week, when a series of hard games are scheduled.

WHITES ARE THROUGH

The Whites have now definitely quit the league, and President Neprud says that no team will have to turn out on the floor to claim a forfeit from them. It is possible that the second team from the American School will take their place and finish the schedule.

Last night's summary follows:

NANYANG UNABLE TO MAKE TOUR

College Team Declines Invitation From Australia

GAME TODAY

East China Champs To Meet Tsinghwa This Afternoon

The Nanyang College soccer football champions of the East China Intercollegiate Association, which plays Tsinghwa College this afternoon for the North China title, will not go to Australia as a rugby team.

The decision was communicated yesterday to Mr. H. A. Millard, here to secure a Chinese rugger outfit for the tour of Australia.

The Nanyang athletes expressed their deep gratitude for the honor which was theirs and their regret that the refusal was necessary.

In the meantime Les Cubitt, international rugby football star, is on his way to Shanghai where the soccer players which are selected for the Antipodes trip will be taught the game of thirteen-a-side rugby between now and next May when they board the Aki Maru for Sydney.

BIG GAME TODAY

Nanyang will meet a tartar this afternoon in Tsinghwa, undisputed title holders of the Peking-Tientsin district. The Northerners have an eye on the opportunity to represent China at the Far Eastern Olympics in Osaka next May and are out to win today. The battle will decide the championship of North and East China and the winner will meet the Hongkong Chinese if the latter can make the trip to Shanghai.

NOTICE

DOGS

Many cases of hydrophobia have been notified in the French Concession, special instructions have been given to the Police to organize battues in which all ownerless dogs found in the streets of the Concession will be, if it is possible, taken and put in pound, or, if not, killed on the spot.

Residents in the French Concession, who will certainly appreciate the imperative necessity of this measure, are asked to take care that their dogs are not allowed out without muzzles.

They will also render a great service to the community if they will notify the Police or Sanitary Department of all cases of the death of suspected dogs occurring at their houses or in the neighbourhood.

I AM THE
"LITTLE CUT-UP"

I am of refined appearance, yet of sturdy construction. My thickness and weight is the same as an American dollar. I am only one inch wide and two and one-half inches long, therefore will not obstruct a gentleman's pocket or a lady's purse.

Being formed from high grade metal (pure nickel-silver) I will not discolor, corrode or rust. Every part and operation reflects the mechanical precision of the workmanship in my construction. Being of the refined pocket knife family you must not expect me to serve as a screw driver, can opener, nail puller or to punch holes with.

Depend Upon Me To Clip Your Cigar, Sharpen Your Pencil, Open Your Letters, To Cut Paper, Cloth, Flowers, And Other Materials. To Serve As A Holder To Strop Safety Razor Blades. Each Individual Will Find Numerous Other Services For Me To Perform According To The Needs Of Their Profession or occupation. I Can be used also as a nail or corn trimmer (after which service you can change my blade and find me as clean and inviting as ever). My little projecting point is a nail cleaner. My diamond-shaped file meets the ordinary business day requirements of a finger nail file.

Men find me suitable to carry in the pocket or to attach my swivel ring to their watch chain, and I make a hit with the ladies on account of most of the reasons mentioned, and especially because I am the most ripping little seam ripper obtainable.

The "LITTLE CUT-UP" is sold by
THE OFFICE APPLIANCE CO.

Irish Government Materials Must Be Made At Fair Wage

(China Press Service)

Dublin, Jan. 23.—Contracts to supply goods to the Irish Government will contain a fair wage clause permitting Government inspectors to visit the factories where the goods are produced to investigate the wages and conditions of employment. Announcement of this policy of dealing with Irish firms was made in a latter by Gordon Campbell, secretary to the Minister of Industry and Commerce, in replying to Mr. Johnson, secretary of the Irish Labor party.

Irish contractors engaged in Government work must display a notice on the premises stating that they are adhering to the clause so that violations may be reported to the Ministry. A Government committee under the chairmanship of the Minister of Industry and Commerce will supervise the placing of all Government contracts.

Japanese Protest Vatican Delegate

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Tokio, Jan. 25.—The Budget provision for a Japanese representative to the Vatican is eliciting vehement opposition from Buddhists throughout the country.

The Foreign Office has issued a statement that the proposed Legation is entirely diplomatic and has in no way any religious aspect. The statement declares that Japan's advancing position in the world necessitates keeping in touch with such an important diplomatic center and recalls historical Papal and Japanese diplomatic exchanges.

Catholic Trials In Russia Soon

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Jan. 25.—The trial of Monsignor Cieplak, Roman Catholic Archbishop of Russia, and all the Catholic priests of Petrograd will take place shortly.

According to press despatches the Catholic population of Russia is exposed without defence to the severity of the Soviets, whose anti-religious policy is becoming more accentuated daily.

Proposes Salary Increase For Judge

(China Press Service)

Peking, Jan. 25.—The sensational report regarding the embezzlement of a large sum of money by, and the disappearance of, Mei Yi-kuo, former Judge of the Shanghai District Court, has inclined Mr. Cheng Keo, Minister of Justice, to the view that the low salary hitherto paid to the Judge of the Shanghai District Court is incompatible with the high cost of living at the Northern port.

Minister Cheng will soon recommend to the Government, the report adds, that henceforth the Judge of the Shanghai District Court shall be appointed by mandate, instead of by ministerial order, with a view to increasing the salary of the Judge.

Senate's Rejection Of Sze Criticised

(China Press Service)

Peking, Jan. 25.—The refusal by the Senate to ratify the appointment of Dr. Alfred Sze as Minister of Foreign Affairs has elicited adverse criticism from the Diplomatic Corps.

The vernacular press here generally denounces the intrigues of the Yi Yiu Hsia and Ching Hsueh Hui Parties which were responsible for the rejection of Dr. Sze's nomination.

According to a report, Premier Chang Shou-tseng contemplates the appointment of either Dr. C. T. Wang or Dr. Wellington Koo as Minister of Foreign Affairs and has telegraphed to Gen. Tsao Kun, requesting him to make a choice.

Peking Repeals Publication Law

(China Press Service)

Peking, Jan. 25.—The Ministry of Justice has issued an order, repealing the Law of Publication promulgated during the Yuan Shih-kai regime.

The order points out that the Law of Publication as well as the Press Law were promulgated by the late President-Monarch Yuan Shih-kai at the time of the monarchical restoration with a view to restricting expression of public opinion. Although the Press Law was subsequently abrogated, the Law of Publication remained in force. The Ministry considers the existence of the Law of Publication unwarranted.

It adds that the operation of a newspaper and the publication of any printed matter are governed by Common Law, which provides sufficient restraint against libellous or obscene articles. Persons may seek redress for libel under Common Law.

New Year Money Is Worrying Peking

(China Press Service)

Peking, Jan. 25.—Mr. Wu Yu-lin, Minister of Communications, who has not yet assumed office, is reported to have succeeded in raising a fund for the payment of the one month's extra salary at the end of the lunar year to the officials of the Ministry.

Mr. Wu, however, is at a loss to find means to cope with the demand of the creditors of the Ministry for payment of matured loans aggregating over ten million dollars.

Constantinople Is To Be Dry After March

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Jan. 25.—The Angora Government has made the week-end holiday compulsory. Shops will be closed every Friday.

The report is confirmed that prohibition of alcoholic beverages will be enforced at Constantinople from March 1.

Fear Japanese Will Rule Hawaii

(Reuter's Service)

Washington, Jan. 25.—The Commission appointed by the Secretary of Labor to investigate immigration into Hawaii has reported in favor of immediate legislation to prevent the domination of the Islands by alien races. The report predicts that, otherwise, the Japanese will soon overwhelm the territory.

7 Refugee Ships Arrive At Manila

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Manila, Jan. 25.—Seven of the Russian ships are now at the Mariveles Quarantine Station. Passengers on the last two arrivals say that two of the largest ships in the fleet, contrary to Admiral Stark's orders, headed North after signalling that they needed coal. Their whereabouts are unknown.

The other three have also been lost track of. One of the boats that turned back was formerly Admiral Stark's flagship, from which he had transferred as an example of bravery to the other refugees who disliked sailing in the smaller boats.

According to Colonel Mixer, head of the Red Cross on the Islands, most of the money donated in Shanghai on which Admiral Stark had counted to pay the refugees' way for two months was on board the boat that put back.

The ten women who are being taken to the hospital in Manila are about to become mothers.

Soviet Warns All Not To Buy Ships Taken By Stark

(Rosta News Agency)

Moscow, Jan. 22.—The Russian Government has published a communication in which it is pointed out that ex-Admiral Stark has taken the fleet from Vladivostok and now he is selling to foreigners the state property of Russia which he has seized. He is committing these crimes in spite of the fact that the Russian Government ordered him to return the fleet and that a general amnesty was declared.

The Government now announces that all purchasing of the naval property of Russia will be considered invalid, and requests the governments of other countries to return these ships to Russia and intern the officers, in case they call at their ports.

From Bad To Worse

WITH a general strike of the German railwaymen in the Ruhr district in progress, all trains being stopped, with excited mobs of Germans swarming the stations and being charged by French cavalry, with the sequential excitation and frenzy, the French occupation of the Ruhr may be said to be taking the course normally forecasted for it. To the north, the crisis between the Russians and the Poles also develops along the lines expected.

All through the dispatches one finds hopes and suggestions of intervention on the part of the United States. What should be impressed upon the peoples of Europe is, that there is slight likelihood of America doing anything for them until they show an inclination to do something for themselves. One thing seems certain in a very uncertain world: The United States is not going to advance more money to Europe for war purposes, and we think, in this matter, that Great Britain will see eye to eye with America. It should be plain to all that the European problem cannot be settled by a nod from the United States. The problem must be solved by the European peoples. When they get back to a peaceful, progressive and productive basis, all the help they require will be forthcoming.

What the State Department doubtless wished to impress upon the public mind in its recent note is the fact that we are only at the beginning of a long and delicate negotiation. If we are to act in concert with European nations, we must first ascertain how far, they are willing to go with us. That will take time. It will also necessitate confidential inquiries and exchanges of views.

As the New York Times puts it, Europe should understand that America is willing to refund the European debts on some plan including lower rates of interest and deferred payments. America is trying to collect something, not lend more. She has no money to lend and wouldn't lend it in the circumstances even if she had it. At the same time, there can be no doubting the fact that the American government and people are sympathetic towards Europe in the present extremity. The peril to Europe is a peril to the world. A new disaster there would have its certain repercussions in America. But it is primarily a European peril, and this being so Europe must show us the way.

BY WILLIAM ALLEN WHITE

What a gang of highbinders and hatchet-throwing tong men is gathering in the United States Senate under the Republican banner these days! The hold-over Republican radicals are Capper, Borah, Ladd, La Follette, Johnson, Norris; the new radicals Howell of Nebraska, Brookhart are Shipstead of Minnesota, of Iowa, Frazier of North Dakota. And not far from these scouts and pioneers of reform are Lenroot, Cummins, McCormick and Pepper, who are much more than mildly progressive. These men are so placed geographically that their Republican colleagues in adjacent states, or in the states where a liberal is planted, fear to follow the reactionary program too closely. So they are giving a distinctly liberal cast to the Senate. Among the Democrats are a dozen other fairly liberal senators, but none of the La Follette, Norris, Capper, Ladd, Frazier type. These Democrats, men like Kendrick, Pittman, Pat Harrison and three or four of the newly-elected Democrats like Ralston of Indiana, who got the labor vote from Beveridge; Copeland, who defeated Calder, and Ferris, who comes from Michigan to rebuke Newberry, are men of liberal tendencies. They will join the non-partisan Republicans above named quickly in any proposition to defeat the old guard of either party. In the Senate easily are thirty votes which will go with the Democrats or the Republicans for any progressive measure. Party lines rest loosely upon the backs of these thirty senators. And for that matter, they rest even more slackly upon the backs of the reactionary senators of both old parties if it is necessary to put across a genuinely reactionary proposal. As matters stand today, parties mean so little in the Senate and so little back home among the people that it is odd to see the party managers going through the idle mummery of party organisation. Yet with all its false-face front, party organisation is still a powerful piece of machinery. You cannot elect a Republican in Texas nor a Democrat in Iowa.

From an esteemed contemporary in Scotland, the Aberdeen Free Press, we take an account of a lecture given by a person who is called "Lord Shaw." He is talking to the "Torphins M. I. Association," which sounds like something particularly good to eat out of a Dickens novel. In the course of his remarks "Lord Shaw," who has crossed the American continent, told his auditors about his Western trip. The Free Press quotes him thus:

"From Chicago they journeyed to Kansas, and here they traversed an altogether different kind of country. It is the 'No Man's Land'—nothing but a vast expanse of sage brush and scrub; everywhere the blazing sun, everywhere the barren earth, and except for the prairie dogs, no sign of life for a journey of 1,000 miles."

Probably "Lord Shaw" did not mean to include Kansas in the great American desert. For if he cared to look out of the window he would find in Kansas about the same kind of country that one sees in Iowa, Ohio, or Michigan, save that the trees are not forest trees and were set out a generation ago by the homesteaders. But west of Kansas, through Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona and Eastern California a casual traveler might think the country is something like the picture which "Lord Shaw" paints. From a train window it does look bleak; a blazing sun does seem to sear and blister the landscape, and there is to the casual eye "no sign of life for a thousand miles." But to the seeing eye, to the traveler who knows the country, this vast semi-arid region is unique and the most interesting part of our American civilisation. On the expense that once was the American desert are a hundred good little towns, bright, spic and span, built in the new bungalow style of architecture. During ten months of the year in these green oases, irrigation keeps trees and lawns fresh and the iron in the soil paints vivid colors in dahlias, sweet peas and zinnias. The long procession of the flowers is a pageant of joy. These little towns that range in population from five hundred to a quarter of a million are most exquisitely set among the mountains, and around these towns is an agriculture that harks back to the time of Abraham. For the cattle range upon a thousand hills. In the valleys alfalfa, wheat and sugar beets thrive. And the wealth of the region is distributed so fairly among the people that no Utopian could complain at it. In these desert and mountain regions between Kansas and the Pacific ocean, north and south and west, are ten beautiful states, where live nearly a dozen millions of people. They are the scenic states of the Union. In them are the great hard metal mines of our country. From them come the young cattle and the sheep that feed the world. They grow citrus fruits and melons for a continent. Lumber and oil and coal go from the desert to comfort the whole nation. It is a great civilisation, as different from the civilisation of the rest of the United States as that of the South is different, or of New England. The traveler who pulls down his blinds and misses it has seen only a part of America, and cannot understand it all. For out on the desert we produce the prototypes which the he-men of the movie land most fearnestly imitate. The "Lord Shaw" person should demand his money back. He did not see America. He only saw the back part of the Ladies' Entrance.

When the liberalism of the Republican party was complaining bitterly last spring that the seating of Senator Newberry was a party crime, the reply of the old guard was that the Newberry issue was a joke. It surely was a side-splitter, but it split the Republican side. Of the dozen senators who voted for Newberry and who came up for election this autumn, only four will be able to answer to the roll call after next March. Those who voted for Newberry and are out of the Senate by reason of the primary or the election or other causes are Calder, France, Freylinghuysen, Kellogg, McCumber, New, Page, Poindexter and Townsend. Lodge, who also voted for Newberry, ran disgracefully behind the Republican ticket and may have a contest on his hands. Pepper, who voted for Newberry, had been in the Senate but a few days when he cast the vote. Only Pepper, McLean and Hale, from Pennsylvania, Connecticut and Maine, rock-ribbed, hard-boiled Republican states, are back in their seats without risk or danger. But those senators who came from states that know any sort of political variableness and shadow of turning, states where the Republicans have any moral sense, either went down or barely squeaked in if they voted for Newberry. The Michigan verdict is particularly shameful for Senator Newberry. In the primary the Republicans cast 70 percent of their votes for candidates who opposed him. But Senator Townsend, the man with the largest minority, was the only man supporting Newberry. And at the polls the votes rose and turned Townsend out. Michigan's opinion of Newberry must be so obvious that even he will hardly care to risk testing it. Newberry was needed by the Republican machine in the Senate. But they seated him at an awful price. When will the old guard learn cost more than they come to?

The late election developed a curious anomaly in certain of the states where prohibition is a newfangled contraption. It was the "wet dry"—and sometimes the "dry wet"—candidate; that means the men who talked and voted one way and lived another. Generally these birds got the contents of both barrels from the voters. The "wet dry"—the man who voted for prohibition and scused against it—was hit rather harder than the candidate who voted wet and practiced abstinence. The political freaks were found in the election almost entirely in states which never have adopted state prohibition. In the thirty-four prohibition states, past elections have killed off the "wet dry." He is as extinct as the dodo out where the West begins. Two things have killed him—first, the lack of liquor; second, the lack of votes. But in those sections of the country where a cocktail still is served before dinner as a sign of social distinction, the "wet dry" has his habitat. He wants booze for the rich and prohibition for the poor. Until that bird is killed off, prohibition in the East still will be an experiment. A few shots like the New Jersey killing will help to put the fear of God, which is the beginning of wisdom, into the hearts of the "wet dry" statesman. A dry vote cannot get away with a wet cellar.

The other day General Ludendorf predicted that Germany would turn to Bolshevism. Probably the wish was the father to the thought. It is one of the happy coincidences of politics that the extremes of politics always hope to see each other win over the moderates. The dripping red would rather see the ultra-conservative come back than the bourgoeisie. And Ludendorf would naturally rather see Bolshevism descend upon Germany than to have the present middle-class government stand the strain of the coming winter. It is easy to explain the desire of the extremists for their antipathies to win. For they both know that the middle group will not always stand for either of the extremes, and in the melee of tipping over the house the outs expect to get in. Politics is a great game if you don't weaken, and if you want a job badly enough you never do weaken. Hence the reds cheer for the triumph of the reds.

The passing of The Appeal to Reason from an organ of militant socialism to the exponent of rampant individualism under a new name marks a serious change in the literature of what might be called rambunctious agitation. For forty long years the Appeal to Reason has been the black beast of conservative middle-class Americans, who feel that this is a perfect world if the price of butter and eggs were only not quite so high. The Appeal to Reason, when it appeared in the '80s, and rather miraculously spread its raw head and bloody bones of socialistic propaganda over the land, became the synonym of all that was treasonable and wicked in politics of a staid and respectable American majority. The Appeal was edited by a mild-mannered man named Wayland, and it was always in trouble with the government. The mild man wore his life out, having made a mint of money, and his sons had no taste for the front door of the jail and they sold it to the editor, who changed its name and its policy last week.

His problem was a most modern problem, having an organ of opinion with which he is out of agreement. Many a rich man today finds himself owning a newspaper or a publishing business with a clientele utterly out of sympathy with his ideas. The business generally is a money maker as a propaganda factory; but if he loathes the propaganda by reason of a change of heart, what is he to do. In the case of young Mr. Haldeman-Julius, who owns the Appeal to Reason and can no longer subscribe to the socialist creed, he has come to believe in individualism. Respectable citizens need not feel more comfortable in their beds because of Mr. Haldeman-Julius' change of heart. Individualism pressed to the ultimate which a restless soul may go might easily mean anarchy or nihilism. So the new Appeal to Reason may be just as good to use in scaring children who are naughty as it was in the old terrifying days.

How Not To Catch Cold

To that end, observe the following "Donts" issued by Dr. Charles J. Hastings, medical officer of health of Toronto, Canada, in the department's Monthly Bulletin. The following of these rules, we are assured, will aid materially in warding off colds as well as other communicable diseases. Here they are:

"Don't sit or work in an overheated room. 65 to 68 degrees is quite warm enough; 60 to 65 degrees if you are engaged in any active work. Insist on there being a slight current in the air of the room you occupy and also a proper degree of humidity.

"Don't use sprays or douches for your nose unless under doctor's orders and instructions. Much more harm than good comes from the use of sprays. In the first place, if a spray is strong enough to destroy the germs, it is more than likely to produce irritation of the mucous membrane, which will lower rather than build up its resisting powers, and consequently make it all the more susceptible to germ activity.

"Don't sneeze or cough except into a handkerchief or a piece of cheese-cloth, and keep well beyond the range of any one else who is coughing or sneezing.

"Don't allow any member of the family who has an acute cold to come in contact with other members of the household, or to use the same eating or drinking utensils, etc. Have everything sterilised that is used by one who has contracted a cold, the same as you would if they had scarlet fever or diphtheria.

"Don't go to any public meetings if you have a cold. You had better stay at home until it is better. You will save time in doing so, and probably save others from contracting your cold.

"Don't stand close to any one with whom you are conversing if you are reckless enough to go about when you have a cold, and do not under any circumstances shake hands with any one while you have an acute cold. Remember, through the frequent use of your handkerchief, your hands are always contaminated with the germs of the disease. Have you ever catechised your hands and fingers with regard to everything they have been in contact with in the previous twenty-four hours? One of the surgeons in a military camp during the great world war kept a careful record of the number of possibilities of contaminating his hands for one single day, and it amounted to approximately 120.

"Don't under any consideration touch any article of food, whether for yourself or for any one else, unless you have previously thoroughly cleansed your hands. Have you washed your hands?' would be a valuable motto to be placed in every dining-room.

"Hundreds of lives could be saved and thousands of cases of sickness prevented, if people were as much afraid of colds as they are of smallpox or a mad dog."

SHANSI

Governor Yen Hsieh-shan's program in reforming Shansi is grouped under six headings. They are irrigation, sericulture, afforestation, opium smoking, foot binding and the queue-cutting. The first three are the things to be encouraged. The rest are the evils to be removed. A bureau of "The Six Reforms" was established in 1917. Great improvements have been made since then. The following is an abstraction from Governor Yen's report regarding the six reforms to President Li recently.

Irrigation. Last year's program of opening channels and well-diggings have been continued; besides the supervision of the work by the magistrates. Inspectors have been sent to different districts to inquire into the matter and to improve accordingly, the Government is applying the regulations of "the Union of Irrigation," suggested by the China Famine Relief Committee in Peking and authorised by the Ministry of Interior and the Ministry of Communications to urge farmers to establish a "Union of Irrigation" in every district. More than ten districts have already formed such unions. Only 15 districts have no newly opened channels and wells in that year. The other 80 districts have opened 98 channels and 7,200 wells. These channels can irrigate 301,864 Chinese acres and the wells can irrigate 23,202 acres. There are still 65 channels and 7,135 wells to be finished next year.

Sericulture. Following last year's program the work of sericulture has been carried out in the following three ways:

(a) Bureau of sericulture in Taiyuanfu. This bureau has succeeded in planting 1,816,000 mulberries and grafting 210,000 Hu mulberries. All these have been distributed to different districts in order to improve this industry. There is also a workshop for making all the tools and machineries in connection with the silk industry and these tools and machineries are sold to the people at cost price. A girls school specially for sericulture was established in Taiyuanfu and great improvements have been made.

(b) Branch bureaus of sericulture were also established in different districts. Over 9,000,000 mulberries have been planted, 90,200 Hu mulberries have been grafted and 10,400,000 young mulberries have been distributed to the people; 46 districts have established sericultural schools for girls and they have 1,727 graduates at present.

(c) Sericultural work have been done by the people. There is a reward of $5,000 from the Government to encourage the people to plant mulberries; 60 districts have enlisted for this competition. 5,625,400 mulberries have been planted by the people and 453 families have received reward. The progress of silk industry in Shansi is shown in the accompaning table.

No. of families undertaking for sericulture in 1920	105,300
No. of families undertaking for sericulture in 1921	148,700
	Catties
Silk produced in 1920	92,510
Silk produced in 1921	124,490

Afforestation. On Easter day each officer, including the governor himself, must plant a tree personally. This is being made as a state ceremony. The same ceremony is also held in different districts. During the year, 13,553,840 trees were planted in Shansi, about 70 percent of these trees are living. Although the trees planted this year are less than those of last year's, the percentage of the living trees is much greater than that of last year.

Opium Smoking. Difficulties have been experienced in stopping the importation of opium; special police stationed at different places along the Yellow River and the Tchang-Tai Railway are searching for the smuggling of opium. Besides, agents have been sent to different districts to search parcels sent through the post, as opium has been found several times in the postal parcels. Since the smugglers found no way to import the opium they gathered about 800 strong, armed with guns, once at Sha-Hco-Koo of Youyu district in August, once at Chiktonkoo of Pinglu district in September and tried to enter into Shansi with great quantities of opium. Fortunately Shansi troops, stationed there, defeated them and captured the opium they carried. This is an example just to show how difficult it is to stop the opium from coming outside of Shansi. Again some of the chemists in Taiyuanfu, such as Chin-Shen, Tchongsi, Baoan, Lodige were smuggling big quantities of morphine and nicotine under the name of drugs but they were really making morphine pills. After having found this, they were heavily fined and their shops were closed by the police. 17,686 cases of opium smuggling have been caught and fined; 51,425 opium smokers have abstained from it.

Foot Binding. Great improvements have been made on the matter of prohibiting to bind the girls feet. Although there is still a very small percentage of girls who have bound their feet, the people now quite understand this cruelty and it is expected that the bad custom will die out in a very short time.

The Queue. The law for cutting the queue was enforced in 1918 and there was no difficulty in carrying it out, so no one has been wearing a queue since then.

Weekly Review Of Shanghai Markets

BY DAVID ARAKIE
(Financial Editor)

The improvement that was noticed during the past fortnight in the damand for China products has continued, and a fair trade was recorded this week in many lines. Prices of some are still too high for consuming countries, and probable business is to a great extent killed.

Sesamum seeds have advanced from Tls. 7.00 to Tls. 7.30 per picul, at which rate some 1,500 tons were done with Trieste for shipment March-April. A small business was also done with London, where the price is also advancing, the quotation being £22 to £23 per ton.

Both the Hamburg and Rotterdam markets for sesamum seeds are firm, but there has been little doing this week principally on account of the fluctuating exchange. If calculated at exchange of 3s. 2 3-8d. to the tael, the local rate would work out at £24 per ton, and the little business that was transacted was in the opening of the week when the tael stood at 3s. 1 5-8d. making the London price about £22.10 to £23 per ton.

In Shanghai the exporting houses have been showing interest and have been buying for near and forward deliveries, but arrivals have been decreasing. Arrivals now average about 200 to 300 tons, and the only available supply for export at the present time is some 500 tons. The rest of the stock will be shipped shortly against contracts entered into previously.

HANKOW'S NEEDS

Trieste is a very been buyer and is willing to pay £23 per ton. We are informed from several quarters that in the district of Hankow there is a demand for sesamum seeds for local consumption as it is as relatively cheap as other seeds, such as rapeseeds, beans and groundnuts. The oil mills are therefore buying, and if this is kept up it should have the effect of making prices firmer.

It is felt by many that within the next two weeks there should be an appreciation in values to Tls. 8.00 per picul, which at the present rate of exchange would make it equivalent to £25 per ton. It is very doubtful whether the European market will follow this increase in price in Shanghai, but it must be stated that Japan is also a buyer, having bought this week some 3,000 bags. The Japanese buyers, according to present indications, would, we imagine, pay the increased prices. The rate in Japan is Yen 11.50 per picul, equivalent to Tls. 7.10, but the Japanese market is expected to improve, and Kobe and Osaka will pay the ruling Shanghai prices. In sesamum seed cakes there is absolutely nothing doing, the quotation being the same.

Accompanying the decline in the price of silver there have been heavy arrivals in Japan of sesamum seeds. The speculators there have been busy and have bought large quantities.

CHINESE PRODUCT DEAR

Indian rapeseeds are at present cheaper than Chinese, and for this reason Japan bought during the week in the Indian market a large quantity at yen 160 per ton cif Japan. It is extremely difficult to collect stocks in Shanghai, and the season appears to have been entirely closed, having opened some time in May. The Indian crop should also be drawing to a close, although it comes on the market in June-July.

This season's rapeseed crop has been about the average, while the previous one was a record, but there have been certain peculiarities. For instance, while production has been an average one, the exports are considerably less than last year, while stocks were exhausted long before the season came to an end.

In an average season we have 500,000 to 600,000 piculs exported to Japan, although last season, which we have already stated was a record one, Shanghai shipped about one million piculs to Japan. The exports to Japan this season have amounted to only 30,000. Japan is always the principal buyer of rapeseed and has bought more largely than other countries this season, the European markets finding ruling prices in Shanghai much too high for them. At the beginning of the rapeseed season the price here was Tls. 4.50, but it rose steadily to Tls. 7.05, at which it stands nominally today. This is indeed the highest price ever paid on the Shanghai market for rapeseeds, and buyers are consequently driven to the Indian market to fulfil their requirements.

PRODUCTION—RIDDLE

If the rapeseed crop has been an average one, it is legitimate to inquire where the balance of the supplies have gone. The only probable explanation of this riddle may be that the Chinese oil mills in the interior have been crushing increasing quantities and presumably they have consumed all this that we cannot account at present.

The bean market here is firm in sympathy with the market in Dairen, which has advanced from Yen 5.20 to yen 5.50 for spot cargo. The Japanese have been operating largely in beancakes and the price of this has consequently improved by ten sen per piece. The Shanghai market is firm, but a very small trade in beancakes is being transacted as prices in Dairen are too high.

The Chinese here are not showing much interest, the local price being about Tls. 4.00 per piece, which is equivalent to Yen 5.80 per piece cif Shanghai. Landed here from Dairen, these would cost 6 yen, a difference of 10 sen per piece. Stocks in Shanghai are fair, while arrivals are also good. During the week three vessels consigned here 3,000 tons of beans. London is not a keen buyer of beans and is more reserved in quoting. The United States is showing some interest but buyers' ideas in that market are too low compared with prices prevailing in Dairen.

Some 2,000 barrels of peanut oil for bulk shipment was done this week in Tsingtau for shipment to Canada via Seattle. The business was done by a local house, as bulk shipments cannot be made from Shanghai, there being no tanks and no pipes. In Tsingtau and Dairen bulk shipments are common, they being done from the tank to the ship. Unfortunately such facilities do not exist in Shanghai. Canada bought at Tls. 14.50 per picul, which is a rise of half a tael per picul in a week's time.

PEANUTS UP AGAIN

Following the advance in peant oil, the market for peanuts firmed up, today's rate being Tls. 6.20 to Tls. 6.30 per picul. Arrivals have been decreasing, and now do not amount to more than 100 to 200 tons a day against 500 tons daily a week ago. It is stated that this is due to the approaching Chinese New Year, the Chinese dealers preferring to go home and wait till the festivities are over. Shanghai stocks are by no means heavy. The London quotation is about £20. 5.

The United States is not showing very much interest in this product for crushing purposes, but for edible use there are inquiries. The New York buying rate is only G. $110 per ton, which is equal to Tls. 8 per picul for 30-32 per ounce, against the prevailing rate of Tls. 9 on the Shanghai market.

PIECE GOODS INQUIRY

The feature of special interest this past week in piece goods is a resumption of inquiry and clearances to Hankow, due, we understand, to more settled conditions and also to welcome rains in many Yangtsze districts. Otherwise trade is quiet and is gradually settling down to preparation for China New Year settlements. Local values are firm, with both importers and dealers asking advances and none too ready to feed speculators except for prompt clearance.

At the auctions prices this week were barely steady, white shirtings weakening 1 to 2 mace in many instances. Hankow merchants secured fair general supplies, but speculators were quiet and are reported to be waiting for next week's sales, there being then a break of 3 weeks for Chinese New Year.

Manchester wires denote strength and many quotations for staples are advanced 1/- since 2 weeks back. Home activity is due to Indian markets buying.

YARN STEADY

We have had a steady yarn market this week, although there has not been much doing. The Chinese dealers are packing off to their homes in the country and as they have done a very good business this Chinese New Year they are reluctant to take further risks just near the wind-up of same. This year these Chinese merchants have been closing their annual accounts earlier than is customary.

Yarn prices are about the same as last week, 16s. being sold at Tls. 146 to Tls. 156, 20s at Tls. 158 to Tls. 174 and 10s from Tls. 135 to Tls. 136.

The week's business was some 4,000 to 5,000 bales which is much lower than the previous week's volume of trade. The Szechuen, Hankow, Tientsin, Canton, Chefoo and Fukien merchants bought sparingly.

COTTON QUIET

Chinese raw cotton has been steady, and the undertone is firm. The week's trading comprised 2,000 to 3,000 bales, and almost all this purchasing was by the Japanese cotton spinning mills in Shanghai.

Arrivals of cotton from the interior are a lightly better consequent upon the settlement of the labor troubles in the Hankow press packing companies, which was effected at the beginning of the week. Receipts of Shensi cotton this week totalled some 1,000 bales, Shanghai cotton 3,000 piculs, Hankow about 1,000 bales and Tungchow 3,000 bales.

Hankow cotton is quoted at Tls. 36.50, Shensi Tls. 41.00, Shanghai Tls. 38.50 and Tungchow Tls. 41.50.

The mills are not buying much cotton at present prices and are content at doing business from hand to mouth. The American market is steady, while the Bombay market has now steadied up after dropping a little.

EXPECTANT ENVOY

(China Press Service)

Peking, Jan. 25.—A "chihling" mandate has been issued, approving the recommendation of the Cabinet to include the name of Mr. Chang Chien, Jr. in the waiting list as a candidate for ministerial posts abroad. Mr. Chang Chien, Jr. is the son of the famous builder of the Nantung model city. He was recently appointed Special Commissioner of Industrial Investigation in Europe and America, but for one reason or another his trip has been deferred.

SALT SURPLUS

(China Press Service)

Peking, Jan. 25.—No Salt Surplus was released to the Government last month, because the salt revenue had directly been appropriated by the Salt Revenue Administration to meet obligations secured thereon.

The prospect of a release from this month's surplus funds is very dim. The total amount of $746,814 will be allocated towards the consolidation of the sinking fund for the $96,000,000 Exchequer Loan.

NEW SHIP SERVICE

(Rosta News Agency)

Vladivostok, Jan. 22.—Steamship communication between Vladivostok and all ports of China will be established now. The Russian Volunteer Fleet has seven ships in service.

HOME FOR GENERAL

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Jan. 25.—The Rumanian Government has acquired a chateau and an estate in Trans-Sylvania which will be presented to General Berthelot, who commanded the French Army Corps in the East, as a mark of gratitude for his services to Rumania.

Spot bar silver was down 7-16d. and forward ⅛d. in London yesterday. The New York price declined to 66½ and the London-New York cross rate to 465½. Our official rates here today were unchanged from yesterday and the market while opening steady, eased off during the course of the day speculators being rather heavy buyers.

In the early part of the morning business in Sterling was done at 3-1 9-16 January, 3-1⅝ February and 3-1 1-16 March. Gold Dollars were done at the same time at 72⅝ January 72½ February and 72¼ March.

However there were keen buyers at these rates and the market quickly eased off becoming quite easy in the afternoon and closing with no sellers of Sterling at better than 3s. 1⅜d. January, 3s. 1d. February and 3s. 0⅞d. March.

The best sellers of Gold Dollars at the same time were offering 72½ January, 72⅛ February and 71⅞ for forward delivery. There were sellers of Yen at 67 for January delivery and buyers at 66⅝. There were sellers for March at 67¾ and buyers at 67⅝.

Banks were quoting 3s. 1⅛ and 74¼ for Sterling and Gold Dollar bills for delivery prior to China New Year and 3s. 1⅜d. and 73¾ for subsequent deliveries. There were good buyers of Franc bills at 1135.

China sold silver in London yesterday and the market there is reported as steady.

New York still report their market as firm and state that the supplies of silver there are very limited.
